Subject: Updated Schedule Change and Applied Charges

Hi Eric –

I just wanted to confirm with you the changes that occurred with my schedule change due to repairing the HPGe:

1. I will be mobilizing home on 5/27/17 and returning on 5/31/2017.
2. There will be an additional hotel/per diem/rental car day.
3. Because I had to change my flights, the airline charged penalties totaling $582.91.
4. These charges will be split between the NFB and HTC assessment TDDs.

On the bright side, the HPGe is up and running again. I would have not had much of a relaxing break if I did not know that the HPGe would be operational or not. I am currently running samples. Please get back with me if you have any questions or concerns. Have a great long weekend and I will be in touch.

Thank You

Chad
